AFFIDAVIT

#727

STATE OF ALABAMA, |

SHELBY COUNTY.... |

Before me, L. C. Walker, Judge of the Probate Court, in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Paul A. Burton, who, being duly sworn deposes and says that he is a son of J. W. Burton, deceased; that he now resides at Shelby, in Shelby County, Alabama.

Affiant further says that his father, J. W. Burton, departed this life at Mosteller's Station, Post Office Address, Shelby, Alabama, Route # 1, and was at the time of his death a bona fide resident of Shelby County, Alabama; that the said J. W. Burton died intestate and that there has been no administrator appointed over his estate; that said estate did not, and does not owe any debts; that there have been no verified claims, showing the nature and the amount of any indebtedness, or obligations due by the said J. W. Burton, or by his estate, filed in the Probate Court of Shelby County, Alabama.

Affiant further says that J. W. Burton had surviving him, at the time of his death, and now survive him, his widow, Flora I. Burton and the following named children: John Lee Burton, Forrest L. Pearson, Pauline E. Mosteller, Ezra J. Burton, George A. Burton, Leona Burton Bird, Irene Burton, and Paul A. Burton, your affiant.

Affiant further says that J. W. Burton, the father of your affiant, departed this life during the last days of January, 1929, in Shelby County, Alabama, as aforesaid.
