AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA)
SHELBY COUNTY.

Before me, the undersigned authority, this day personally appeared L.C.Walker who, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows, to wit:

That he resides in Shelby County, Alabama, near the lands hereinafter particularly described; that he has known the said lands hereinafter particularly described; that he has known the said lands and the location thereof, as well as the occupancy of the same, for more than twenty years last past; that during his lifetime C.M. Wooten (who was also known as Columbus M. Wooten) claimed to own the same and actually lived thereon, and after his death his family continued to reside upon and occupy the same; that said C.M. Wooten and his said family, or some of them, have, for at least twenty years last past, been in actual possession of the same, as aforesaid, and their said possession has been peaceable, continuous, uninterrupted, exclusive, under claim of right and adverse to the whole world; that said possession has been open and visible to the public; that affiant never has heard of any claim of any other person than the said Wooten to the said land during the past twenty years or more, and affiant has been in a position to hear of such claims if any such claims had been made.

That the said lands are described as follows: Southeast Quarter of South
