Personally came and appeared before me, S. A. Lokey, a Notary Public for the State of Alabama at large, L. C. Walker, Judge of Probate of Chelby County, Alabama, who after being by me first duly sworn according to law to speak the truth deposeth and says:

I was well acquainted with J. E. So far as I know the said J. E. Hamric died intestate and this is my information that he did die intestate and that there has been no administration on his estate.

Hamric; Mrs. Margaret Howell, the wife of George Howell; Ethales Hamric, an unmarrised woman and Mrs. Jewell Adkins, a widow and no others.
