State of Alabama,
 Shelby County,
 Town of Columbiana,

Be it resolved by the Town Council of the Town of Columbiana:

That whereas, Valley Mills, Inc., W. E. Morrow, Ethel Morrow, G. R. Foshee, Odell W. Foshee, have filed a copy of a written instrument with the Town Council, said instrument purporting to be a declaration of their desire and intent to close a street or portion thereof, said street being located in Columbiana, Alabama, and being described as follows:

An unnamed public street lying west of the building in Columbiana known as the "Old Courthouse", and beginning at the west edge of the intersection which is located at the southwest corner of the lot owned and occupied by W. F. Davis, and extending south 88 deg. 25 minuted west for a distance of 181 feet; said street being 33 feet in width.

That, whereas, Valley Mills, Incorporated, a Corporation organized under and in conformance with the laws of the State of Alabama, desires to locate and construct a textile mill on the area now occupied by said street.

The premises considered, it is hereby resolved by the Town Council of the Town of Columbiana, in assembly sitting, that said Council assent to said vacation of said street.

Done this the 26 day of March 1948.
