

#2783

STATE OF ALABAMA

SHELBY COUNTY

Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority in and for said county, in said state, the undersigned affiant Doris Askins Henson, who being by me first duly sworn on oath deposes and says that she is the person who made those certain affidavits which are recorded in deed book 127 page 276, in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama. Affiant avers that in said affidavits she made a statement that one of the heirs of William B. Askins was Jasper Askins, and that Jasper Askins departed this life intestate and unmarried while serving in the army of the United States in Germany on or about May 17, 1944, and left surviving him as his sole heirs at law his brothers and sisters, as set forth in said affidavit.

Affiant avers that she executed this affidavit without reading same, and that she made an error in said affidavit. Affiant avers that the true facts are that the said Jasper Askins departed this life intestate and unmarried while serving in the Army of the United States in Germany on or about May 17, 1944.

Affiant further avers that the said Jasper Askins had been married, but that he was, at the time of his death, divorced from his wife. Affiant avers that the said Jasper Askins had one child and one child only, which said child is Jean Askins, who is now Jean Askins Smith. Affiant further avers that the said Jean Askins Smith is the child and only child of Jasper Askins, Deceased, and that he left no other child or children, nor child or children of any deceased child.

Affiant avers that her former affidavit is true and correct as to the possession of the property heretofore conveyed by A. B. Baxley and wife Jewell Baxley to Kate H. Beason, by deed recorded in Vol. 127, page 276, Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, and is also true and correct as to all of the children of William B. Askins, and the only error in said affidavit is, as stated, as to the heirs of Jasper Askins.

Affiant avers that she has read this affidavit over carefully, and has full knowledge that the facts herein stated are true and correct.
