JEFFERSON COUNTY

Before me W. L. Rasco, the undersigned authority in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Earl E. Gunn, who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says;

My name is Earl E. Gunn. I am over 21 years of age and live in Brighton, Jefferson County, Alabama. I am a son of J. W. Gunn and his wife, Alma Gunn, sometimes known as Alma A. Gunn. I am familiar with the Wa of SEA of SEL; also E of SEL; also SEL of SEL and We of SEL in Section 7, Township 22, Range 1 West, Shelby County, Alabama. Said land was sold by T. J. Wells and wife, E. A. Wells and Alma A. Gunn to H. W. Parker, Jr., on January 8, 1917, as shown by deed recorded in Deed Book 59 page 510 in the Probate Office of Shelby Coupty, Alabama. At that time my mother, Alma A.Gunn was a widow and she owned said land jointly with T. J. Wells in her own right. My father, J. W. Gunn, never did own it. I do not known what happened to me mother's deed but I know that she did own the land.
