STATE OF ALABAMA

, N. 1

SHELBY COUNTY,

Personally came and appeared before me, S. A. Lokey, a notary public for State of Alabama at Large, Oscar F. Hall who, after being first by me duly swornaccording to law to speak the truth deposes and says that he is well acquainted with the house and lot in Columbiana, Alabama known as the Doctor J. B. Williams: lot and described as follows:

Begin at the intersedtion of the southern boundary of West College Street in the Town of Columbiana, Alabama, and the eastern boundary of that certain alley which intersects said West College Street at a point opposite the lot formerly known as the Methodist Parsonage lot and run in a southerly direction toward the L & N Depot, and mun in an easterly direction along the said southern boundary of said West College Street, a distance of 69 feet, more or less, to the Northwest corner of J. R. Meigs lot; thence in a southerly direction along the line of Meigs Lot, 63 feet; thence in an easterly direction 2 feet and 6 inches, in a southerly direction along said Meigs, line, 72 feet more or less, to the northeast corner of Simon Davis' lot, thence in a westerly direction along Simon Davis line 67 feet, more or less to the eastern boundary of the above named alley; thence in a northerly direction along said eastern boundary of said alley 135 feet, to the point of beginning, situated in Shelby County, Alabama.

Affiant further states that he is well acquainted with Luther F. Mooney and knowns of his own personal knowledge that Luther F. Mooney and his wife Margaret Mooney were not occupying above described property on March 26, 1949 as a homestead, but that the said Luther F. Mooney and his wife Margaret Monney were residents of Memphis, Tennessee in April of 1949 and had not lived in Columbiana many months prior thereto.
