STATE OF TENNESSEE

SHELBY COUNTY

Before me, Elsie Smith, the undersigned authority in and for said County in said State, personally appeared Esther Curtis Baxter, who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says:

My name is Esther Curtis Baxter. Charles Curtis, Lavada Curtis and Esther Curtis Eaxter are the sole and surviving heirs at law of Emma Curtis, deceased. I, and each of us, accepted notice that Lavada Curtis as Administratrix of the Estate of Emma Curtis, deceased, filed a petition in the Probate Court of Shelby County, Alabama, for a Final Settlement of said estate. At said time we were over the age of 21 years and of sould mind. I agreed at that time and do agree that said estate has been properly administered and that all the funds have been accounted for; that all just and legal claims have been paid and that the balance remaining on hand after the payment of same was disbursed upon the payment of one-third to each of said heirs.

Witness my signature this 27th day of March, 1951.
