AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF ALABAMA

JEFFERSON COUNTY

Before, me, the undersigned authority, in and for said County, in said State, this day personally appeared Warren Lewis, who, being by me first duly sworn deposes and says as follows:

Affiant is President of Longview Lime Corporation, a corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Alabama.

Affiant is acquainted with the lands owned by Longview Lime Corporation lying and being in Shelby County, Alabama comprising approximately 4942 acres. Said lands are particularly described in affidavit of C. H. Fulton made on May 14, 1951 before Ruth C. Snow a Notary Public and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama.

Affiant knows of his own knowledge that there are no adverse claims to the title to any of the lands described in said affidavit, and that no one has disturbed or attempted to disturb the possession of said lands by the corporation. If there had been any such adverse claim or any attempt to disturb said corporation's possession, affiant in his position as President would have known of it; but to the contrary, said lands are generally recognized in the community as being in the ownership and possession of Longview Lime Corporation.

Affiant further states that the following are all of the stockholders and directors of Longview Lime Corporation, viz:

Chloe L. Adams, Virginia A. Brewer, Murray A. Meade, Chloe G. Ehlmann, Warren Lewis, Malone Moore and Bert M. Meadow.

Affiant further states that affiant has not been served with letter or given other form of notice that a deficiency income tax or other form of tax is or will be owing by Longview Lime Corporation to the United States Government, and no tax lien notice has been filed by the United States Government on said corporation, or in the Probate Office of said County, or elsewhere, with reference to any of said corporation's property; and said corporation does not owe the United States Government any tax whatever at the present time, and no delinquent or unpaid tax of any kind is claimed by the United States Government against said corporation or its said property.

Affiant further states that the agreement entered into by and between the Longview-Saginaw Lime Works, Inc. and E. T. Spidle as of the date of July____, 1946, has expired by its own terms and was never renewed and the personal property of E. T. Spidle placed on the lands of Longview-Saginaw Lime Works, Inc., under said agreement have long since been removed from said lands.
