Shelby, Alabama,

Date 11-3-1952

Mr. Henry Wright Kennedy,
c/o Silverwood Dept. Store, Willshire Blvd.,
Los Angeles, California.

Dear Sir:

I hereby notify you that I am selling approximately 28 acres of Farm Land, formerly owned by the Rev. C. P. Keith, now deceased, to my son Charles M. Keith.

I have paid taxes on this property for approximately twenty years, and have also paid for the burial expenses of the above mentioned Rev. C. P. Keith. I have also settled with the heirs and piece-heirs who were connected with this property, with the exception of yourself.

My reason for selling this property is that the taxes which I have paid, and the burial expenses of the late Rev. C.P.
Keith which I have also paid exceed the valuation of the property.

I suggest that if you protest the sale of this property please contact Charles M. Keith at #60 Front Street, Hempstead, L.I., N.Y., by registered mail within thirty days.

Yours very truly,

E. J. Keith
