

STATE OF ALABAMA
DEKALB COUNTY

Personally appeared before me, a Notary Public in and for said county, Mrs. Emma De Berry, who deposes and says as follows:

That she was a sister-in-law of Florence De Berry Booth, who was a resident of Shelby County, Alabama at the time of her death. That the said Florence De Berry Booth died intestate, in said county on or about October 4, 1952, and the said Florence De Berry Booth was one of four children. She had a brother, George De Berry, now deceased, and the said George De Berry left surviving him a widow, the affiant, Emma De Berry, and the following children, Lillie De Berry, a single woman, Loyce De Berry, a single man, Samuel De Berry, husband of Tennie De Berry, Floyd De Berry, whose wife is Mary De Berry, and Pearl De Berry Jones, wife of Irby Jones, and Mildred De Berry Wilson, wife of Hoyt Wilson.

Affiant further says that the said Florence De Berry Booth had a brother Monroe De Berry, now deceased, and that the said Monroe De Berry left surviving him no heirs.

Affiant further says that the said Florence De Berry Booth had a sister named Ella De Berry Brown, now deceased, and that the said Ella De Berry Brown, left surviving her the following children, Geneva Brown Garden, wife of O. F. Carden, and Mildred Vinson Brown, wife of Loyd Brown.

The said Florence De Berry Booth had a brother named John De Berry, and that the said John De Berry is now deceased. That the said John De Berry left surviving him Lillie De Berry Ferguson, wife of Hollie Ferguson, and Thelma De Berry Osborne, wife of Robert Osborne.

Affiant further says that the above named parties are all of the heirs of Florence De Berry Booth, deceased.

Affiant further saith that she is making this affidavit in an effort to clear the title to the property of Florence De Berry Booth.

Further affiant saith not.
