NOTE
I, James L. Ray Jr., a registered Surveyor No. 841 revised this subdivision made originally by a now defunct registered Surveyor 302, in 1948. My revision was made to the original and further subdivision of this property and changing of some lots at the direction of the owners. Computations are based on my Survey. Signed this 6 day of October 1955.

PROTECTIVE COVENANTS

These covenants are to run with the land and shall be binding on all parties and all persons claiming under them until dissolved or withdrawn. Said covenants shall be automatically extended for successive periods of ten years unless by a vote of a majority of the then owners of the lots, one vote for each lot, it is agreed to change said covenants in whole or in part.

If any party hereto or any of them or their heirs or assigns shall violate or attempt to violate any of the covenants herein it shall be lawful for any other person or persons owning any interest in any lot situated in said subdivision or development to prosecute any proceedings at law against such party or persons violating or attempting to violate any of these covenants and either to prevent or restrain or recover damages or other dues for such violations.

Violation of any of these covenants by judgment or court order shall, in adverse effect and of the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect, affect all the other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

All lots in this subdivision shall be known and described as residential lots and shall conform in usage and by general restrictions governing lots in the "A" zone of the zoning law of the town of Montevallo, Alabama.

2. No farm animals or poultry and not more than one dog shall be kept or maintained on any residential lot.

3. No person or persons shall be permitted to dump garbage, trash or sewage on any property in this subdivision.

4. An easement is required to allow the utility to place poles and anchors to run water lines and sewer lines on or within thirty (30) feet of the inside property lines.

5. No dwelling, erection, partition and/or in this subdivision a cost on lot Nos. 23, 24, 25 and 26, on which no dwelling, cost less than Ten Thousand dollars ($10,000.00) shall be permitted.

Easements affecting the above lots shall be granted and reserved for the installation and maintenance of storm sewers, sanitary sewers, electric, gas, telephone, water, other utilities, or any other utility easement that may be needed.

6. The lots shown on this map may be further subdivided for the purpose of increasing subdividing of the lots shown herein.
