STATE OF ALABAMA, Y
 SHELBY COUNTY.....Y

Before me, Paul O. Luck, a Notary Public, in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared H.H. Whatley, being one and the same person as Herbert Whatley, who, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he resides at 133 Avalon Avenue, Hueytown, Alabama, and that he has known, for a period of thirty-eight years, last past, the hereinafter described lands, to-wit:

The South Half of the Southeast Quarter of Section 18, Township 20, Range 2 West,

Affiant further says that he is the son of J.R. Whatley, who departed this life intestate on October 11, 1950, and being at the time of his death a resident of Jefferson County, Alabama.

Affiant further says that the said J.R. Whatley did not owe any debts at the time of his death, and that the said Estate of the said J.R. Whatley does not now owe any debts.

Affiant further says that the said J.R. Whatley, deceased, left surviving him, as his sole heirs at law and next of kin, his wife, Maude Whatley, and the following named children, namely: Gladys Whatley Walker; H.H. Whatley, being the one and same person as Herbert Whatley; H.T. Whatley, being the one and same person as Ted Whatley; Louise Whatley Fleet, and Earl R. Whatley, each of whom was, at the time of the death of the said decedent, over the age of twenty-one years.

Affiant further says that the grantors named in that certain deed from Maude Whatley and the heirs at law of J.R. Whatley, to W.J. Strickland, dated April 1, 1952, and recorded in Deed Book 152, on page 315, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, constitute the widow and the heirs at law, and their husbands and wives, respectively, of the said J.R. Whatley, deceased.

H. H. Whatley
