Before the undersigned authority, personally appeared Van Buren Ledbetter, who is known to me and who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I live in Beat 5, Shelby County, Alabama and have lived there all of my life and I am now 59 years old.

I am acquainted with John H. Tidwell and on December 24, 1923 he married my sister, Minnie Ledbetter. Their marriage was performed by Rev. S. H. Sturdivant who was a minister of the gospel and a Justice of the Peace. He procured the license from him and it was filled out on the regular marriage blanks which was supposed to have been filed with the Probate Judge. After their marriage, the parties went to Dora, Alabama where they have lived and reared a family consisting of six children, two of whom died young and the other four are still living.
