SHELBY COUNTY

Before me, Harold C. Harrison, the undersigned authority in and for said county in said state, personally appeared William Harvey Baker, who after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says:

My name is William Harvey Baker. I am 60 years of age and own certain real estate situated near Harpersville in Shelby County, Alabama. It has been called to my attention that there is a judgment recorded in Judgment Record F Page 93, which judgment was filed on June 3, 1953, and was obtained in favor of Liberty Loan Corporation and was against Willie H. Baker and was for the sum of $350.98 plus court cost in the amount of $5.70. Affiant further says that he has never owed the Liberty Loan Corporation any money and does not owe them anything now and he knows nothing about the judgment on record and the defendant in said case is a person other than affiant. Affiant says his full name is William Harvey Baker and he is one and the same person as W. Harvey Baker and that his present wife's name is Pauline J. Baker. His first wife's name was Hurd Baker and she died approximately 4 years ago.
