KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That, I, Laura O. Jeffers of Birmingham, Alabama, being over twenty-one years of age and of sound and disposing mind and memory do hereby make, publish and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by me at any time.

First: I direct my Executor to erect or cause to be erected a neat and appropriate monument at the grave of my parents in the cemetery at Calera, Alabama, provided such monument shall not have been erected before my death, and to pay the expense thereof out of any money which I may have on hand at the time of my death or out of the proceeds of any property owned by me at the time of my death, if I should not have sufficient money on hand at that time to pay the same.

Second: I give, devise and bequeath to my husband Joseph Jeffers one-third of all the rest, residue and remainder of the real and personal estate of every kind and description of which I shall die seized and possessed or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death (after payment for a monument to be erected at the grave of my parents as directed in Section One, Supra), to be held, and the rents, income and profits therefrom used and enjoyed, by him so long as he remains unmarried, or during his natural life, if he should not remarry.

Third: I give, devise and bequeath the remaining two-thirds of all the rest, residue and remainder of the real and personal estate of every kind and description of which I shall die seized and possessed, or to which I shall be entitled at the time of my death, to my two children, Joseph Jeffers, Jr. and Eleanor Jeffers, in equal shares.

I further direct that if it be not necessary for the reasonable and proper maintenance, support and education of my said children, or either of them, to sell any portion or portions of the said property before my daughter Eleanor arrives at the age of twenty-one years that the said property be held in tact and not sold or divided until my said daughter shall have arrived at the age of twenty-one years. Upon the arrival at the age of twenty-one years of my said daughter Eleanor Jeffers then the said property may be divided, or sold for division, if necessary, and the share of each of my said children in the said property then given to them, to have and to hold to them respectively and to their respective heirs and assigns unconditionally and in fee simple forever.

Fifth: If my husband Joseph Jeffers should marry again after my death then upon his remarriage, or upon his death if he should die without having remarried, the property herein devised and bequeathed to him in Section Two, Supra, shall go to my said two children, Joseph Jeffers, Jr. and Eleanor Jeffers, in equal shares and be governed in all respects as the other property hereby devised and bequeathed to my said two children, and as directed in the Fourth Section hereof, Supra.
