BOOK 174 PAGE 507

Before me, Mrs. J.P. Kimbrough, a Notary Public, in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Thomas Glover White, who, being first duly sworn, deposes and says that he resides in Calera, Shelby County, Alabama, where he has so resided for the past ten years, and has been employed by the Lawrence Super Store since the Spring of 1946.

Affiant further says that he is not acquainted with either Earl Drennen or S.A. Kahn, and that he has never had any business or professional dealings or transactions with either of said parties; that he is not, nor has he ever been indebted to either of said parties, nor has he ever been served with notice of suit in any case wherein the above named parties were plaintiffs and Thomas G. White was defendant.

Affiant further says that he is not the Thomas G. White who is defendant in that certain judgment in favor of Earl Drennen and S.A. Kahn which appears of record in Judgment Record "F" on page 326 in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama.
