1525

I am the daughter of T. J. Corn and wife, Mamie Corn. I am acquainted with that certain mortgage executed by T. J. Corn and wife, Mamie Corn, to J. F. Pope Company, Inc., dated May 7, 1941, and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in Mortgage Book 185 at page 90. The last note secured by this mortgage is for $463.63, and not $463 as shown in said mortgage recited. I was present on May 15, 1942, when my mother paid off said note on May 15, 1942, and the mortgage was delivered to my mother. I have in my possession the note in question marked "paid in full" and signed The J. F. Pope Company, Inc, by Charles W. Williams. I know that the other notes secured by said mortgage were paid.

This affidavit is being made in connection with a sale of the land included in said mortgage to Britt Ingram and to him I am surrendering the mortgage in question and the note showing the last payment. The mortgage and note referred to have been in possession of my mother continuously since May 15, 1942 to the present time except I procured it and brought it to Columbiana, Alabama, in proof that the mortgage had been paid.
