Certificate
No. 116

Act June 25/1849
The United States of America

No all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas the act of the Secretary of the Interior has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office at Washington, D.C., whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said John A. Smith of the sum of $1000, for the purchase of the said land, and that the said land is now in the possession of the said John A. Smith.

According to the provisions of the act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the purpose of the said act, the said land is now in the possession of the said John A. Smith.

And whereas the said John A. Smith has been paid the sum of $1000, for the purchase of the said land, and that the said land is now in the possession of the said John A. Smith.

Now know ye, that the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have given and granted, and by these presents do give and grant, unto the said John A. Smith, the said tract above described, to have and to hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances, of whatever nature, therunto belonging, unto the said John A. Smith, his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I, James Williamson, President of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the said of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the 11th day of February, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty thirteen, and of the Independence of the United States the forty seventh.

By the President, J. M. McKim
Commissioner of the General Land Office.
