Before the undersigned authority personally appeared Handy Ellis, who is known to me, and who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I was acquainted with J. A. Richards, also known as Joel Amos Richards, to whom Cecil Richards deeded certain property conveyed in deed, dated February 27, 1933, and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, in Deed Book 95, at page 271., and that said Joel Amos Richards, also known as J. A. Richards, died intestate on the 7th day of June, 1936, and his estate has been administered, and finally settled in said Probate Court.

Said Joel Amos Richards left surviving his widow, Annie Richards, who administered his estate and he had three children as follows: J. I. Richards, Cecil B. Richards, and E. G. Richards, and that is the only children he had.

Said J. I. Richards and E. G. Richards, also known as Etheridge G. Richards died on the 11th day of April, 1949. Both of them were killed by a shot from a shot gun. Said E. G. Richards (Etheridge G. Richards) was never married and left no children nor descendants of children, and his sole heirs at law and next of kin were his brother, Cecil B. Richards, and his mother, Annie Richards, also known as Mary Annie Richards, and two children of J. I. Richards, namely: James A Jones and Betty Joyce Jones. The widow of said J. I. Richards was Lula F. Richards.

Sworn to and subscribed to before me on this 29 day of March, 1956.
