Before me, Martha B. Joiner, the undersigned authority in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared T. S. Wallace, who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says:

My name is T. S. Wallace. I am 57 years of age and have lived in and around Helena, Alabama, for the past 57 years. I knew Mrs. Ella V. Draper during her lifetime and I know she died many years ago. It is my information that she left no Will. I knew her children and know that the following were children of Mrs. Ella V. Draper and know they were her sole and surviving heirs in 1926 and 1927 when they executed certain deeds to R. T. Dunnam and Forrest Dunnam. Said children being G. L. Draper, F. M. Draper and Myrtie Harper.

I also knew R. T. Dunnam well and remember when he died sometime in the twenties without leaving a Will. He left surviving him, Forrest Dunnam, his widow; two sisters, Claudia A. Ruffin and Ida E. Dunnam; and two half-brothers, Cecil H. Peal and Basil P. Peal. The persons named herein were his sole and surviving heirs at law.
