

Before me, the undersigned authority, in and for said County and State personally appeared Marion P. Jones, who, being known to me and being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

That he is 34 years of age and has been well acquainted with the ownership, use and possession of the following described real estate in the Town of Calera, for the last past 25 years:

West Half of Lot 11, Block 3, according to Dunstan's Map of the Town of Calera, Alabama.

Further deposing, affiant says that he is the son of Marion E. Jones and a nephew of Alberta Eason Ingram, W. P. Eason, Jr., Geraldine Eason, and D. E. Eason.

Further deposing, affiant says that he first knew the property in about the year 1931, and that at the time he first knew the property, there was a five room frame dwelling situated on the same and the same was occupied by Alberta Eason Ingram and her husband, J. E. Ingram, and affiant says that he, his mother and sister lived with said Alberta Eason Ingram for a time. Further deposing, affiant says that Alberta Eason Ingram, named as one of the grantees in that certain deed from A. B. Baxley and wife, Jewel Baxley dated April 7, 1928 and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in Deed Book 83, page 138 is one and the same person as Lula Alberta Ingram, who appears as one of the grantors in that certain deed dated May 30, 1931 and recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in Deed Book 89, page 387.

Further deposing, affiant says that W. P. Eason, Jr., one of the grantees in the above referred to deed from A. B. Baxley and wife, Jewel Baxley dated April 7, 1928 was his uncle and W. P. Eason, Sr. died sometime prior to 1928 and that in 1931 W. P. Eason, Jr. went by the name of W. P. Eason and affiant knows of his personal knowledge that W. P. Eason, one of the grantors in that certain deed to C. T. Ingram dated May 30, 1931, recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in Deed Book 89, page 387 is one and the same person as W. P. Eason, Jr., the grantee in that certain deed from A. B. Baxley and wife Jewel Baxley referred to above. Further deposing, affiant says that Marion Eason Jones, one of the grantees in the above referred to deed from A. B. Baxley and wife, Jewel Baxley dated April 7, 1928 is one and the same person as Marion E. Jones referred to by such name in deeds recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in Deed Book 136, page 468, deed Book 136, page 469, Deed Book 141, page 236 and deed book 141, page 237.

Further deposing, affiant says that a notice of tax lien recorded in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in Judgement Record D, page 455 has been called to his attention and affiant says that he knows of his own personal knowledge that no person by the name of Eason Jones has ever owned or claimed to own any part of the above described land, and he understands that such Eason Jones lived near Shelby, Alabama, and none of the people who have owned the above described land have ever lived in that vicinity.

Further deposing, affiant says that Geraldine Eason died intestate in 1949 and at the time of her death she left surviving her as her next of kin and sole surviving heirs at law, Alberta Eason Ingram, who is one and the same as Lula Alberta Ingram, Marion Eason Jones and D. E. Eason.

Affiant further knows that W. P. Eason, Jr. died in 1943 without having married.
