Before me Det H. Moore, the undersigned authority in and for the County of Lanier, State of Georgia, personally appeared B. D. Hood, who after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says:

My name is B. D. Hood. I am a son of Naomi L. Hodd and Warren D. Hood, who own certain land in Section 10, Township 20, Range 2 West, Shelby County, Alabama, I am informed that the tax assessment records for said County show that said land was assessed to me for 1955 and 1956. I have never owned any interest in said land and am making this affidavit for the purpose of certifying that I claim no interest in the same. I made the Tax Assessment return for the said Warren D. Hood and Naomi L. Hood for the year 1955 and 1956 and paid the taxes for them and through some mistake the property was assessed in my name, but it should have been assessed in the name Naomi L. Hood and Warren D. Hood.

Affiant further says he is quite familiar with said land and he knows that no road crosses any portion of said land and that the only road adjoining the same runs along the north line of said land and is known as the Simmsville Road.
