KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That I, Ethel L. Rogers, of Wilton, Alabama, am held and firmly bound unto John C. Murphy of _____, in the sum of Three Hundred forty & no/100 ($340.00) Dollars, to be paid unto the said John C. Murphy, his executors, administrators or assigns, to which payment well and truly to be made I bind myself, my heirs executors and administrators, firmly by these presents.

The condition of this obligation is such that whereas, the said obligor has this day bargained and sold unto the said obligee a certain lot or lots described as follows:

for the sum of _____ Dollars of which sum _____ has been paid and the remainder is to be paid as follows:

th interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from date, according to the terms and conditions of promissory notes therefor executed by said obligee to order of said obligor and bearing even date hereof.

Now, if the said obligor shall execute and deliver to the said obligee, to their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, a good and sufficient warranty deed, with full covenants, except as to building restrictions of record except as to such incumbrances as may arise by virtue of any tax assessed subsequent to the execution hereof, of the above described premises, upon the said promissory notes being paid according to the terms and conditions thereof, then this obligation to be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect, it being understood that should said note or notes not be paid on the due date of the same, then any amount paid by obligee shall be forfeited to obligor as liquidated damages, and obligor relieved of any obligation to obligee.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this _____ day of _____, 1957.
