Before me, Robert S. Glasgow, Jr., a Notary Public in and for the State of Alabama at Large, personally appeared J. N. Niven, who, being by me first duly sworn, deposeth and saith as follows:

My name is J. N. Niven. I have lived in and around Wilsonville, Alabama, all my life. I am 34 years old. I am acquainted with the lands and people in this area. I knew Jule McCoy during his lifetime. To my personal knowledge, he and members of his family have been in open possession of the property now occupied by his daughter, Ola Oden, for more than fifty years past, claiming it as their own. This land includes that conveyed to Alabama Property Company by conditional deed dated May 30, 1956, by Pearl Gordon Hill and Ola Oden. Jule McCoy brought his family up on this land. He cultivated the lands for years, making his living there as a farmer. That is all I ever knew of him doing as a means of livelihood. Ola Oden and Pearl Gordon Hill are children of Jule McCoy. His widow's name was Mollie McCoy. I never heard of any person claiming against Jule or any of his heirs. His title and right to possession never was disputed during that time, so far as I know. No one else has been in possession of the land during the past fifty years.
