STATE OF ALABAMA,

BOOK 191 PAGE 501

CHILTON COUNTY.

Personally appeared before me, the undersigned authority in and for said County in said State, Lawrence F. Gerald, Jr., who having been by me first duly sworn deposes and says:

That he is 41 years of age and well knew T. M. Taylor during his lifetime, who owned the following described property situated in Shelby County, Alabama, at the time of his death:

One lot in the Town of Calera, Alabama, being Lot 601 fronting on Montgomery Avenue 50 feet and extending back of uniform width 150 feet west, and situated on the west side of Montgomery Avenue and being the house and lot formerly owned by Mary J. Crawford and now occupied and used as a garage and filling station and bounded on the east by Montgomery, on the south by the lot owned by S. M. Tomlin, and on the west by the public school property and on the north by the Calera public school property, situated in Shelby County, Alabama.

That said T. M. Taylor died the latter part of 1942 or the first part of 1943, and that his will was probated in Chilton County, Alabama on January 19, 1943. That at the time of his death he left surviving him as his only heirs at law according to his will his widow, Alla Taylor; Margaret Mims, a sister; Nora McDowell, a sister; Eudora Devaughn, a sister; Janie Blalock, a sister; Jimmie Taylor, a brother. That Reddie Taylor, who was named in said will, died prior to the death of T. M. Taylor and left surviving him as his only heirs at law three sons, James M. Taylor, Willie Edwin Taylor and Morris Taylor.

That Margaret Mims died about the year 1948. That she left surviving her as her only heirs at law Nora McDowell, a sister; Eudora Devaughn, a sister; Janie Blalock, a sister; Jimmie Taylor, a brother; Rollan W. Taylor, a brother; James M. Taylor, Willie Edwin Taylor, Morris Taylor, nephews; and A. R. Taylor, a nephew; Allene Rhodés, Corene Mims, Roberta Mims, nieces; and her father, Tom Taylor, who died about the year 1954 and left surviving him as his only heirs the above named children and grandchildren.
