STATE OF ALABAMA

SHELBY COUNTY

Personally came and appeared before me, W. W. Rabren, a Notary Public for the State of Alabama at large, Roy L. Isbell, who after being by me first duly sworn according to law to speak the truth deposes and says:

My name is Roy L. Isbell. I am 58 years of age and have lived near Vandiver, Shelby County, Alabama off and on during my lifetime and have lived there during the past 12 years.

I have read the affidavit of J. E. Falkner and adopt his statements contained in same affidavit which pertain to the possession of the property described therein, by James A. Johnson and Dalton Johnson, as my own statement, as I know that the possession of James A. Johnson and Dalton Johnson of the property described therein during the period the year 1947 through June 15, 1958 has been actual, continuous, exclusive, open, notorious, adverse, hostile and under color of title and claim of ownership and no persons have ever claimed any right, title or interest in or to said property adverse to James A. Johnson and Dalton Johnson, nor have I ever known of anyone disputing or questioning their title.

Roy L. Isbell

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 15th day of September, 1958.
