SHELBY COUNTY

Before the undersigned authority personally appeared Bell White Henderson, who is known to me, and who being by/^{me}first duly sworn, deposes and says:

I am acquainted with the old Phillip Ellison place in Beat 2, Shelby County, Alabama. Mr. Phillip Ellison died while he was on this place. He got killed by a falling tree while out coon hunting. I remember Mr. Frank Patterson living on the place a number of years and I understand the records show that he sold the property to R. E. L. Headley, and that Headley in turn sold it to Walton Eddins in 1918. My then husband was Jim White and he rented the place from Mr. Eddins and we lived on it two years immediately following the sale to Mr. Eddins. While/^{we}were there the two years which was as I recall was in 1919 and 1920, we cultivated gardens on it and lived on it the entire two years. Arthur Carden went into possession of the property after we moved and lived on it.

My name was Bell White and my husband, Jim White was also killed by a falling tree.

There is a big china berry tree at the old Phillip Ellison homeplace and also some walnut trees and as stated we lived on the farm in the Frank Patterson house for two years. At that time the old house was torn down and Patterson had built a new house and that is the one we lived in.

In recent years I have remarried Virgil Henderson and we live near Siluria, Alabama.
