 COUNTY OF SHELBY)

Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority in and for said State and County, Ernestine Jones Hogan, who first being duly sworn deposes and says that she and her husband, John L. Jones, who died on November 6, 1956, were married for eighteen years; that they had no children; that John L. Jones, her husband, had one brother and that the brother and John L. Jones' parents died before he did; that she and the said John L. Jones bought and paid for a house and lot in Helena, Shelby County, Alabama in 1946; that the said house and lot was known as the Thomas Knowles Estate house and lot; that it is bounded on the north by the colored Baptist Church (The Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church), on the west by the Helena and Acton Road, on the east by the Jim Maxie lot formerly known as the Wm. Lee Estate lot, and on the south by the John Edward lot formerly known as the Nancy Sanders lot. That she and John L. Jones went into immediate possession of the said house and lot and continued in possession of the same until the death of John L. Jones and thereafter she continued in the possession of the same. That said possession was open, notorious, peaceable, and adverse to all the world; that they have paid the taxes on same since 1946. That the title of John L. Jones and Ernestine Jones Hogan to said lot has never been questioned or contested in any way.
