That her husband, J. D. Muse died in the Veterans Hospital in Montgomery, Alabama on August 28, 1950. Further deposing affiant says that she and her husband purchased by joint survivorship deed on January 8, 1948, the following described real estate:

Further deposing, affiant says that since the death of her husband she, as sole owner of the property, has been in possession of all of the property, living in her home on said property, assessing the same and paying the taxes on the same each and every year, cultivating parts of the same each and every year since the death of her husband up to and including May 10, 1955 on which date affiant sold to Charles Thomas Alverson and wife, Robbie Marie Alverson that part of the SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$, Section 9, Township 20 South, Range 1 East lying West of the Westover paved public highway, Shelby County, Alabama.
