STATE OF ALABAMA )
COUNTY OF SHELBY )

Personally appeared before me the undersigned authority in and for said State and County, Pauline Logan, who, first being duly sworn in accordance with the law to speak the truth, deposes and says that she is the daughter of Arch Logan, who was one and the same person as A.A. Logan and Archibald A. Logan, and Emma Bradford Logan named as the mortgagors in that certain mortgage deed dated December 12, 1922, recorded in Mortgage Book 130 at page 62 in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, wherein the Federal Land Bank was the mortgagee; that my father, the said A. A. Logan, departed this life in Nov. 10, 19 33; that he predeceased my mother, the said Emma Bradford Logan, who died in August of 1953; that the only surviving heirs at law of my mother were and are me and my two brothers, namely, Scott Logan and John A. Logan, ; that there are no children of deceased children of the said Emma Bradford Logan; that there has been no administration of the estate of the said Emma Bradford Logan, deceased; that any debts she owed at the time of her death have been paid in full.

Affiant further deposes and says that she can recall that a church and school known as the Klein Church and school were situated on the north side of the Kymulga Ferry dirt road but the said church and school were not located in the northeast corner of the Southeast Quarter of the Southeast Quarter of Section 16, Township 20, Range 2 East, Shelby County, Alabama, and that there has to her knowledge never been any church or school located on said property; that the present Klein Baptist Church is located south of State Highway 76, which is the old Kymulga Ferry Road, more than a quarter of a mile from the said northeast corner of the said 40 acres of land and at one time the road ran south of said church; that the entire Southeast Quarter of said Section, Township and Range was patented to my mother, the said Emma Bradford Logan, by the State of Alabama and no exception was made for any church or school.
