Before me, Will F. Franke, the undersigned authority in and for Jefferson County, in said State, personally appeared Vera D. Whitehead, who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says:

My name is Vera D. Whitehead. There has been called to my attention a deed from Frances E. Whitehead, a widow, to Bill and Margrette Alexander dated August 3, 1949, and recorded in Deed Book 137 page 388 in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama, and a deed from Frances Whitehead, a widow, to Jonah and Freddie Mae Alexander dated September 24, 1954, recorded in Deed Book 175 page 158 in said Probate Office. Affiant further says that she is the person who executed said deeds. Affiant further says her husband's name was Francis Whitehead and her name in said deeds should have read "Mrs. Francis Whitehead". Affiant further says that the only Frances Whitehead she knew was the mother of her husband and she has been dead since November, 1930.

Affiant further says that she and her son, Frank William Whitehead, are holding a mortgage from Odis Dixon and Verna Lee Dixon, as shown by Mortgage Book 240 page 195 in said Probate Office, on which mortgage there is an unpaid balance of 3 notes of the principal amount of $53.00 each, plus interest. Affiant further says she is executing a deed to Odis Dixon and Verna Lee Dixon correctly describing the land which they have in possession and which land should have been described in said mortgage. Odis Dixon and Verna Lee Dixon are quit claiming to affiant the land which was erroneously heretofore conveyed to them. Affiant further says that the mortgage she holds should have covered the land described in the new deed to Odis and Verna Lee Dixon which she and he son are executing and that is the only land on which she and her said son claim to hold a mortgage from Odis and Verna Lee Dixon.
