AFFIDAVIT

Before me, the undersigned authority, a Notary Public in and for the State of Alabama at Large, personally appeared Samuel C. Robinson, who, after first being duly sworn deposes and says as follows:

"My full name is Samuel Clyde Robinson, and I live at Route One, Siluria, Shelby County, Alabama, and have lived there continuously since 1949, except for an interval in the United States Army, at which time Siluria was still my home. I have never gone by the name Sam Robinson, but have always signed my name Samuel C. Robinson or S. C. Robinson. Some of my Siluria friends call me Sammy Robinson, and carry my name on their books as Sammy Robinson.

I have bought all of the furniture I have except my television set from Cardwell Furniture Company in Alabaster, Alabama. They carry my account in the name of Sammy Robinson. My television was bought from Crim Television Company, Alabaster, Alabama, and my account is in the name of Samuel C. Robinson or S. C. Robinson.

I have never bought any furniture from Duke Brothers Furniture Company, nor have I ever been indebted to Duke Brothers Furniture Company in any sum. I am not the Sam Robinson against whom Duke Brothers Furniture Company, a Corporation, procured a judgment on the 26th day of May, 1953, in the Intermediate Civil Court of Birmingham, Case No. 69270, which is recorded in Record F, Page 98, in the office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama. As a matter of fact, Duke Brothers Furniture Company, a Corporation, has never gotten any judgment against me at any time, nor has anyone else ever procured a judgment against me at any time for any thing. I do not know the Sam Robinson referred to in the above said judgment, but I do know that whoever he is, he is no kin to me by blood or marriage.
