

The United States of America.

To all to whom these presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas in the year of the said survey has deposited in the General Land Office of the United States, a certificate of the Register of the Land Office of Washington in testimony whereby it appears that full payment has been made by the said John J. Harrison according to the provisions of the Act of Congress of the 24th of April, 1820, entitled "An act making further provision for the sale of the Public Lands," for the said tract of land, and that the said John J. Harrison has been paid by the said Land Office the sum of $100.00, and that the said John J. Harrison has received the said certificate of the said Register of the Land Office, and that the said John J. Harrison has been paid by the said Land Office the sum of $100.00, according to the official plat of the survey of the said lands, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General, which said tract has been purchased by the said John J. Harrison.

NOW KNOW YE, That the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in consideration of the premises, and in conformity with the several acts of Congress, in such case made and provided, have Given and Granted, and, by these presents do give and grant, unto the said John J. Harrison, his heirs and assigns forever, the said tract above described: To Have and to Hold the same, together with all the rights, privileges, immunities, and appurtenances, of whatever nature, thereto belonging, unto the said John J. Harrison, his heirs and assigns forever.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto

PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the twenty-second day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, and of the Independence of the United States the forty-third.

By the President, etc.

Commissioner of the General Land Office.
