Before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Jesse T. Todd and Marie Smith Todd, who, upon each being duly sworn, depose and say as follows:

On March 2, 1959, Jesse T. Todd established a Trust for the benefit of his daughter, Mimi Marie Todd, (born on September 23, 1957) and for a then unborn child of his marriage with his wife, Marie Smith Todd. Marie Smith Todd is Trustee under said Trust. Said Trust instrument provided that in the event a child was born of Grantor and said wife within two (2) years from the date of execution of said Trust (March 2, 1959), and if such child survived birth for a six-month period, then said latter child should be entitled to a one-half (1/2) interest in said Trust, the other one-half (1/2) interest remaining in trust for said Mimi Marie Todd. After the vesting of said one-half (1/2) interest in such other child, the Trust was thereafter to be held for equal use and benefit of said two children.

A son, Jesse Turrentine Todd, Jr., was born of the marriage between said Grantor and his said wife on May 19, 1960, and has survived birth for more than a six-month period, and said Trust is now held for the equal use and benefit of Mimi Marie Todd and Jesse Turrentine Todd, Jr.

This the 15th day of March, 1963.
