Personally came and appeared before the undersigned author JUDGE OF PROBATE Public in and for said County and in said State, Mary Ida Woolley, who, being first by me duly sworn to speak the truth, deposeth and says:

My name is Mary Ida Woolley and I live at 414 Highland Street, Montevallo, Alabama, and I am a daughter of Robert E. Woolley who acquired title to the following described property and claimed and possessed it as his own until his death in the year 1914.

The Southwest quarter of Northeast quarter: South one-half of Southeast quarter of Northeast quarter: North one-half of Southeast quarter of Section 7, Township 22, Range 3 West; and South one-half of Southwest quarter of Northwest quarter Section 8, Township 22, Range 3 West, situated in Shelby County, Alabama.

My mother's name was Ida C. Woolley and she died in the year 1943 and there were eight other children, namely: Milton E. Woolley, Edward Lee Woolley, Pearl Woolley, Reason Samuel Woolley, Lizzie Woolley, John Woolley, H. C. Woolley and Willie Woolley.

Milton E. Woolley died and was survived by a widow Etta Mae Woolley. Pearl Woolley married an Eddings and after his death married Wafe Seale and her husband recently died and she is now a widow. Reason Samuel Woolley who is known as Reese Woolley first wife died and he was recently divorced from his second wife. Lizzie Woolley married H. W. Lawley and she is now dead and was survived by a husband H. W. Lawley and two children Christine Eales and H. W. Lawley, II. Her son Ralph Lawley was killed in the service during World War II but had never married and had no children. John Woolley died leaving a widow named Verta Woolley and two daughters Mary Lynn Combs and Betty John Brady. Willie Woolley died leaving surviving her a husband whose name was Harvey A. Edge and no children. Edward Lee Woolley and myself have never been married.

I know of my own personal knowledge that for more than ^{the past} 50 years no one has been in possession of any part of the above described property claiming adverse to my father and myself and my sisters and brothers, and I have never heard of anyone disputing or questioning the title of said ownership to said property.
