STATE OF ALABAMA
SHELBY COUNTY

Before me, S. D. Conpton, the undersigned Notary Public in and for said State, personally appeared Grace I. Pope, who being by me first duly sworn deposes and says:

I, Grace I. Pope, am a resident of Shelby County, Alabama, and have been for the past 35 years. R. L. Pope was my husband, and he died intestate on the 12th day of January, 1960. There was no administration of his estate, and he left no unsatisfied judgments, claims, or demands of any type, against him at the time of his death. My husband and I have only one child, Hazel Elizabeth (Brown) Baucum, and there are no children of deceased children. At the time of the conveyance of a parcel of property to J. W. Blankenship and wife, Thelma Blankenship, I was a widow, and my daughter was unmarried, having been divorced from her husband for approximately ten years. Since the date of the conveyance to J. W. Blankenship and wife, Thelma Blankenship, my daughter has re-married; the date of her marriage to Mr. Baucum September 1st 1962
