Personally appeared before me, the undersigned authority, in and for said county in said state, Robert T. Walters, who after being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says:

My name is Robert T. Walters. I knew Samuel E. Bardolph for many years prior to his death, and I remember the occasion when the W. W. Investment Company, Inc. purchased from Mr. Bardolph certain property in Shelby County, Alabama, more particularly described in deed recorded in Deed Book 110, page 474, in the Office of the Probate Judge of Shelby County, Alabama, dated October 31, 1941 and filed for record November 1, 1941. At that time Samuel E. Bardolph and his wife, Geneva Bardolph, were living in Jefferson County, Alabama, near Patton's Chapel. I do not know where Elma Bardolph was living at that time, but I do know that neither Samuel E. Bardolph nor Geneva Bardolph nor Elma Bardolph were living on the above referred to property. At the time the W. W. Investment Company, Inc. bought it the Watkins-Walters Oil Company was leasing the property and were operating a service station on same and the W. W. Investment Company, Inc. then sub-leased two small shacks on same, but so far as I know the people living in the shacks were not related to Mr. Bardolph in any way.

I know of my own personal knowledge that the above referred to property was not the homestead of Samuel E. Bardolph nor Geneva Bardolph nor Elma Bardolph from the time W. W. Investment Company, Inc. bought it until the time we sold it in 1953.
