STATE OF ALABAMA)
SHELBY COUNTY)

Before me, the undersigned Notary Public, in and for said County in said State, personally appeared Grace A. Bishop, who being first duly sworn deposes and says as follows:

That she is one and the same person as the grantee in a deed from J. M. C. Johnson and his wife, which deed is dated July 11, 1940 and recorded in Volume 109, Page 521 in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama. That deed recited that the tract conveyed was described as "Begin at the NW corner of the SE $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$," but that it was the intention of the parties to that deed and that deed should have read "Begin at the NW corner of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SE $\frac{1}{4}$." That the property conveyed in that deed has been continually in the possession of the affiant's family since before 1902 and that the affiant and her family and successors in title have occupied the property openly and as their own, claiming it against the entire world, and that no one has ever questioned the ownership of this property by the affiant and her family.
