LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

GEORGE A. BLINN, SR.

I, the undersigned, GEORGE A. BLINN, SR., a resident of Birmingham, Alabama, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby expressly revoking any and all wills heretofore made by me.

Section 1

It is my will and desire that all my just debts be paid as soon as practicable after my death and that all assets of my estate be conserved and all good will and business pertaining thereto be protected pending administration. To that end I hereby give and grant unto my personal representatives hereafter named full power and authority to sell any part or all of my estate, real or personal, either at private or public sale and either for cash or on terms, without necessity for order of court or notice to my heirs or legatees should such action be deemed necessary; and in the event that my personal representatives should be of the opinion that it is necessary or convenient to borrow money for the payment of estate or other taxes, charges or debts, or in order to raise funds to protect or preserve any assets of the estate or to operate any business or execute any contract held by my estate, such representatives shall have full power and authority to borrow moneys for account of my estate and secure same by mortgage or pledge of any asset thereof; and shall, moreover, have full power and authority to continue and carry on, repair, renew, insure and otherwise conserve and maintain any business item or asset of the estate and to enter into or perform any contract deemed necessary or desirable in connection therewith all without necessity for order of court or notice. In the event of the failure of any executor or trustee to qualify, or of death, resignation or inability to act, a majority of my executors and trustees shall have the same power and authority under this will as is herein given all.

Section 2

I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved wife, Annie Evans Blinn, all my household goods, furniture, books, silver and pictures, including my automobile or automobiles which I may own at the time of my death, except the portraits of my father and mother, which I give to my daughter, and I also give her my solitaire diamond ring set in platinum. I give my son, George A. Blinn, Jr., my Scottish Rite ring.

Section 3

I give, devise and bequeath to Harry H. Horner, W. E. Willett, Henry R. Howze and Industrial Savings Bank (and to such successor corporation having trust powers as shall succeed to the business of said bank by purchase, merger, consolidation or change of name), as Trustees, hereinafter called the Trustees, all of the rest and residue of my property, real, personal and mixed, of which I may die seized and possessed, or in and to which I may have any testamentary capacity or control, whenever and whatsoever it may be, in trust for the uses and purposes, and subject to the conditions herein stated:

George A. Blinn, Sr.

The Trustees shall divide said trust property into three equal shares, one of which shall be known as the Annie Blinn Wagstaff share, the second shall be known as the Annie Evans Blinn share, and the third shall be known as the George A. Blinn, Jr., share.

The Trustees shall hold the said Annie Blinn Wagstaff share during the life of my daughter, Annie Blinn Wagstaff, and pay the income therefrom to her at convenient intervals, and at her death the trust estate shall go to and be divided among her lineal descendants, and any adopted child, or, in the event she die leaving no lineal descendants or adopted child, the said trust estate shall go to and be divided among my lineal descendants.

The Trustees shall hold the Annie Evans Blinn share during her life time and pay the income therefrom to her at convenient intervals. Upon the death of my wife the Trustees shall divide the Annie Evans Blinn share equally between my two children, Annie Blinn Wagstaff and George A. Blinn, Jr., subject to the terms and conditions herein set forth with reference to their shares.

The Trustees shall hold the George A. Blinn, Jr., share until he arrives at the age of thirty years, and during the minority of my son the Trustees shall pay to the guardian or custodian of my son at convenient intervals a sufficient amount of the income from said share as may be necessary for the support and education of my said son, and upon the arrival of my son at the age of twenty-one years, the Trustees shall thereupon pay to my son the income from said trust estate until he reaches the age of thirty years, at which time said trust shall cease and determine and the same paid over to my son; provided, however, that should the Trustees be of the opinion that my son is able to manage his share before reaching the age of thirty years, the Trustees shall at such time as they may deem best pay over said trust estate to my son.

In the event no child of mine is living at the time of the death of my said wife, or at the time of my death in the event I survive my wife, leaving no lineal descendants surviving, the executors and Trustees shall pay over and distribute the trust estate to those persons entitled to take under the then existing Statutes of Descent and Distribution in the State of Alabama as though I had then died intestate.

I expressly authorize and empower the Trustees to convey, transfer and pay over all or any part of the principal of any of the trusts created by this will to the respective beneficiary entitled to receive the income therefrom, when, and only when, in the sole and absolute discretion of the Trustees it shall deem it advisable so to do for the proper care, maintenance and support of such beneficiary, or in case of emergency or other unusual requirement deemed sufficient by the Trustees; such distribution to be charged against the share of such beneficiary hereunder on such basis as shall be fixed and determined by the Trustees either at the time or subsequently.

The Trustees shall pay from and out of the income of the trust property any and all expenses reasonably necessary for the administration of the trust, including interest, taxes, insurance and a fair and reasonable compensation to the Trustees for their services, as well as any other expense incurred for the benefit of the trust estate, and in the event the income from the trust estate is insufficient for the purpose of paying such expense, the same may be paid from the corpus of the trust estate. The normal compensation of the Trustees shall be at the rate of one-half of one per cent per annum of the fair value of the trust estate (to be determined by the Trustees). For services of an unusual or extraordinary character, the Trustees shall have the right to apply to any court having chancery or probate jurisdiction in Jefferson County, Alabama, or to a judge thereof, as an arbiter to fix such reasonable compensation as may be proper for such unusual service.

I hereby authorize and empower my Trustees and Executors to retain my property, real or personal, in the same form which it may be at the time of my death, and invest the proceeds therefrom in such securities as they may deem advisable whether or not such securities be authorized by the laws of the State of my residence, or the residence of the Trustees or the beneficiaries.

Any and all divisions and distributions under any of the foregoing provisions of this my will may be made by the Trustees either in cash, securities or real estate as they may deem best, and the judgment and valuation of my Trustees as to any securities or real estate or other assets allotted as part of any trust fund or distributive share shall be final and conclusive on all persons interested.

Section 6

The Trustees shall not be liable for any error in judgment in administration of the trust; nor shall they be liable for any acts of omission or commission, except the wilful disregard of duty, and they may act by agent or attorney, and shall not be responsible for their acts of omission or negligence but shall be held to the exercise of reasonable care in selecting, retaining and discharging them, and shall be entitled to credit for any and all expenditures deemed necessary by the Trustees in protecting or caring for the trust property.

Section 7

I nominate, constitute and appoint Harry H. Horner, J. E. Willett and Henry R. Howze as executors of this my last will and testament and, to the extent that I may legally direct or require, guardian of the property of any child or descendant of mine, surviving me, under the age of twenty-one years and unmarried at the time of my death, so long as such minor shall be a beneficiary of this trust and until such minor shall have respectively attained his or her majority.

Section 8

The Executors and Trustees shall at all times keep full, accurate and proper records of the trust estate and keep the beneficiaries of this trust informed thereof at reasonable times and intervals and shall also confer and advise with said beneficiaries or their authorized representatives from time to time; but I expressly direct that the said executors shall not be required to file any inventory of my estate in any court unless expressly required by decree thereof, and that the said guardians, executors and trustees above named shall not be required to give any bond or undertaking in any jurisdiction for the faithful performance of their respective duties, unless specifically ordered so to do by a court having jurisdiction, in which event the cost or expense of bonds should be paid from the trust estate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I, the undersigned, GEORGE A. BLINK, SR., have hereunto set my hand and seal, on this the 13th day of July 1931, and have identified the preceding pages by signing my name on the margin thereof, hereby declaring the above and foregoing instrument on this and the preceding pages to be my last will and testament.

George A. Blink, Sr. (SEAL)

Signed, sealed and declared by the said GEORGE A. BLINK, SR., to be his last will and testament in our presence, and we, in the presence of the testator, and at his request, and in the presence of each other, have signed our names as witnesses hereto.
