JUDGE OF PROBATE

My father, W. O. Pate, originally acquired this property in June of 1932. My mother, Ola Pate and my father, W. O. Pate, lived on this property until sometime during 1959 at which time they conveyed it to myself and my husband, Ramond Thornburg. My father's possession of this property from 1932 until 1958 had been continuous, open and notorious and we considered this as our home place. I was born and raised on this land and my husband and myself have continued to live here since this property was conveyed by my father on March 29, 1959, to my husband and myself.
