

STATE OF ALABAMA

SHELBY COUNTY

Before me, the undersigned authority in and for said County in said State, personally appeared W. F. Robertson, who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says:

My name is W. F. Robertson. I am 62 years of age and have known the hereinafter described land for the past 52 years. Said land being described as follows:

W $\frac{1}{2}$ of NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ and E $\frac{1}{2}$ of E $\frac{1}{2}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of NW $\frac{1}{4}$, Section 32, Township 20, Range 2 East, Shelby County, Alabama.

Affiant further says when he first knew the land it belonged to John R. Robertson and in 1912, he willed said land to Tyler Robertson. Affiant further says that the said Tyler Robertson married John Davis, Jr. and was thereafter known as Tyler R. Davis. Affiant says that the said Tyler R. Davis lived on said place and occupied it, farmed portions of it during the time she owned it and until her death about the year 1932. After which, her husband, John Davis also known as John Jip Davis married a second time to Eula Davis, who is still living. Affiant says ^{when} the said Tyler R. Davis died, she left surviving her, her husband, John "Jip" Davis and the following named children: Hubert Davis, whose wife is Jessie Davis, Henry Davis, whose wife is Lottie Davis, Herman Davis whose wife is Rosie Davis, Mattie Perry whose husband is James Perry and Johnnie Mae Davis, who is unmarried. It is common knowledge in the community where I live that John R. Robertson owned said land many years prior to 1912 when he willed the same, and that he lived on it and reared his family there during his lifetime and that the title to said land remained in John R. Robertson's devisees under his Will as mentioned above and that the same was willed to Tyler Robertson Davis and then it became the property of her heirs.

Affiant further says throughout all the years he has known the land, he has never heard of anyone contesting the title or disputing the possession of Tyler R. Davis or her heirs or the persons through whom they claim.
