STATE OF ALABAMA )

SHELBY COUNTY )

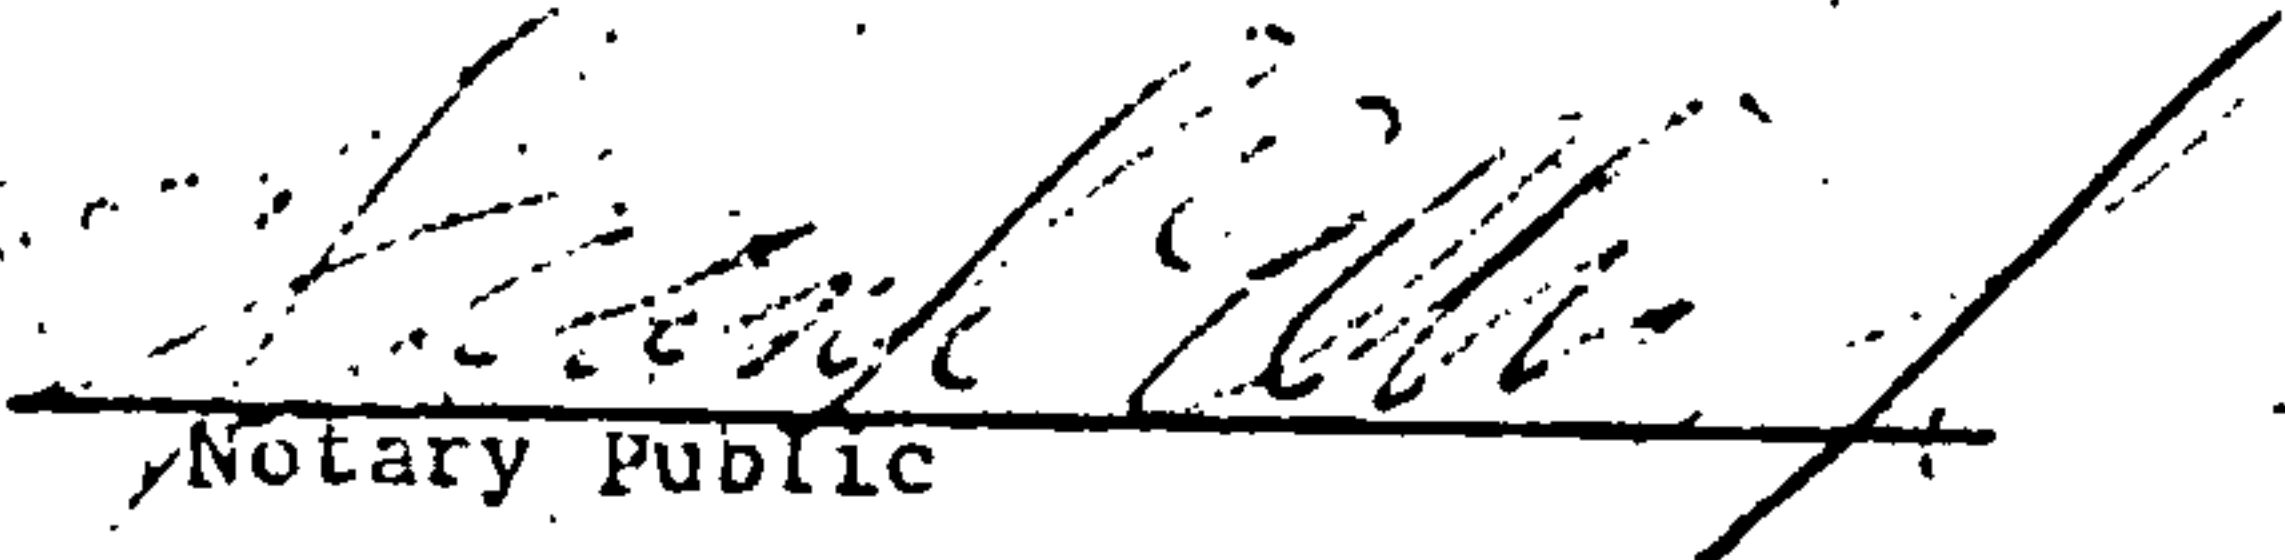

Before me, the undersigned authority, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, personally appeared Frank Head, who after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth deposes and says as follows:

My name is Frank Head and I presently reside at Columbiana, Shelby County, Alabama. I am an Attorney at Law and was practicing law in Shelby County, Alabama, on October 6, 1951. I was the attorney for Nuna Freeze and Waree Brooks, the complainants in that certain action in the Circuit Court of Shelby County, Alabama, In Equity, Case No. 33 6. The above described action was a bill to sell certain property for division among the joint owners thereof. The complainants and the respondents in the above action were all of the heirs at law of Annie Wallace. Thus, Nuna Freeze, Waree Brooks, J. W. Wallace, I. J. Wallace, Dorothy Sterling, Erlene McLeod, Ralph Leamous, and Alfred Leamous, Jr., were all of the heirs of Annie Wallace on October 6, 1951, and on July 12, 1952.
