Before me, the undersigned authority, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, personally appeared Claude Brown, Jr., who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth deposes and says as follows:

My name is CLAUDE BROWN, JR. I am one of two partners in Brown and Holcomb Contraction Company, a partnership, which said partnership was the purported grantee in that certain deed dated May 18, 1966, and recorded in Deed Book 242, page 292, in the Probate Records of Shelby County, Alabama. The other partner in said Brown and Holcomb Construction Company, a Partnership, was and is Thomas Holcomb. At the time the last mentioned said deed was executed and at the present time and at all times intervening, there was an actual partnership in existence composed of affiant and Thomas Holcomb known and identified as Brown and Holcomb Construction Company, a Partnership. There are no other partners in said partnership at this time or at any time heretofore and the same has always been composed of affiant and said Thomas Holcomb.
