

STATE OF ALABAMA)

SHELBY COUNTY)

Before me, the undersigned authority, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, personally appeared BONNIE ATCHISON, who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says as follows:

My name is Bonnie Atchison and I am the grantee in that certain deed executed by Clay Lester and wife Mildred G. Lester on October 5, 1951, and recorded in Deed Book 148, page 383 in the Probate Records of Shelby County, Alabama. Immediately after the execution of the last above referred to deed my husband, Will Atchison, and I went into the actual possession of the property described in said last mentioned deed and resided in the residence located thereon continuously up until the time of my said husband's death. From the date of my said husband's death up to and including the date of this affidavit, I resided continuously and exclusively in the residence located on the property described in said deed. During the period of time from October 5, 1951, up to and including the date of this affidavit I have, either jointly with my husband or alone, been in the continuous, exclusive, hostile, adverse, notorious, open, and continuous possession of said property and no other person, firm, or corporation has been in possession of the same or any part thereof during said period. I have never heard my title questioned or disputed in any way.

It has been called to my attention that when the above described property was purchased by Clay Lester by deed dated October 17, 1944, and recorded in Deed Book 120, page 92, in the Probate Records of Shelby County, Alabama, said property was described as being in Section 25, Township 21, Range 1 West. Actually, this was a mis-description and the property is actually located in Section 23 of said township and range.

Dan Lester, one of the children of Rufus Lester was married to Polly Lester, the grantor in that certain deed recorded in Deed Book 119, page 213, in the Probate Records of Shelby County, Alabama. Said Dan Lester was killed in an accident prior to 1944, and died having never had any children.

Sworn to and subscribed to before me this 20 day of September, 1966.
