AFFIDAVIT OF FRANCES HARPER BUTLER

Before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, personally appeared Frances Harper Butler, who being first, duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

That she is advised that her name is on the records in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, in more than one manner, therefore, she is making this affidavit in order to induce Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation to issue their owners title policy to John J. Sarris and wife, Catherine C. Sarris.

In Mortgage Book 220 at page 188 in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, her name is mentioned as one of the mortgagors in that certain mortgage. Francer Harper Butler herein mentions that she is one and the same as Frances Harper Butler mentioned in that aforementioned mortgage and she was at the time of the execution of said mortgage legally married to and a wife of Robert G. Butler also mentioned in said mortgage. Your deponent further says that on the 21st day of September, 1966, she voluntarily executed a warranty deed, jointly for life with remainder to survivor along with her husband, Robert G. Butler, to John J. Sarris and wife, Catherine C. Sarris. In said aforementioned deed which is recorded in Book 244 at page 799 in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, your deponent herein signed her name as Mrs. Robert G. Butler. Your deponent wishes to state that she is one and the same person as Mrs. Robert G. Butler whose signature appears as one of the grantors in the aforementioned deed, and that she did voluntarily execute said deed. Your deponent further avers that at the time of the execution of said aforementioned deed she was lawfully married to and the wife of Robert G. Butler, the other grantor in said deed. Your deponent further avers that she is one and the same as Frances Harper Butler mentioned in that full satisfaction of recorded lien recorded in Book 244 at page 800 in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama.
