ASSISTANT CASHIER
MISS LOUISE REICHERT
ASSISTANT CASHIER
MISS MARGARET LEVERETTE
ASSISTANT CASHIER

According to the Will left by my father, John T. Rucker, who passed away on December 15, 1964, I inherited one-fourth (1/4) interest of his Estate which the estimated value is approximately $100,000.00 and no known indebtedness is at this time owing.

I am indebted to the City National Bank of Sylacauga, Alabama for the following:

$5,300.00 represented by note dated May 27, 1965 and due May 27, 1966.
$3,011.19 represented by note dated May 4, 1965 and due On Demand
$4,375.00 represented by note dated May 4, 1965 and due On Demand, and Secured by chattel mortgage on certain equipment making a total indebted of $12,686.19.

For value received, receipt which is hereby acknowledged, and I assign and transfer to the City National Bank of Sylacauga, Alabama, my one-fourth (1/4) interest in my fathers Estate now handled by my sister, Lucille Rucker, who is hereby authorized and requested to remit direct to the City National Bank of Sylacauga, Alabama my one-fourth (1/4) interest of money accumulated from sale of real estate or otherwise until my notes have been paid in full with interest.

Upon payment of indebtedness, this assignment is hereby null and void.

Witness my hand this the 29th day of November, 1965
