

State of Alabama
Shelby County

Before me, the undersigned authority in and for said County in said State, personally appeared Amanda Todd, who, after being by me first duly sworn to speak the truth, deposes and says:

My name is Amanda Todd. I know of my own knowledge for the past 40 years of more the 10' strip mentioned in the deed in 1333 as shown by Deed Book 12 page 163 in the Probate Office of Shelby County was not used as a roadway, but was considered as part of the land owned by Anderson Brown and his successors in title. I also know of my own knowledge that in 1943 Mary J. Robinson, who was named as an heir of Anderson Brown in his estate, was dead, and that the only heirs of Anderson Brown at that time were Yola A. Brown and Clara Lewis.
