

STATE OF ALABAMA

SHELBY COUNTY

Before me, a Notary Public in and for said County and State, personally appeared Mary McKenzie, who is known to me, and who being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

My name is Mary McKenzie. I am 77 years of age and presently reside at Alabaster, Shelby County, Alabama.

I am a widow, my late husband, William Harrison McKenzie, having died on June 10, 1967.

My said husband and I formerly borrowed $375.00 from Mr. A. R. Thornton on or about June 15, 1950, and gave a mortgage on our home to secure said indebtedness, as shown by mortgage recorded in Mortgage Book 213 at page 311, Office of Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama.

It has been pointed out to me that the record of said mortgage in said Probate Office of Shelby County has not been marked as being paid and satisfied by Mr. Thornton, but it is my definite recollection that said mortgage has been paid in full.

Within a year from the time when we obtained said loan from Mr. Thornton and executed said mortgage, my husband and I paid said indebtedness to Mr. Thornton in full, having borrowed the remaining amount necessary to pay said indebtedness from the First Bank of Alabaster, Alabaster, Alabama.

I do not know why Mr. Thornton has not marked said mortgage as being paid. I do not know whether or not Mr. Thornton gave us back the mortgage and note after we had paid said indebtedness-- It has been so long ago, I don't know what became of said note and mortgage.
