Dear Mrs. Boroughs:

The Continental Assurance Company has paid the claim for the balance due on this account and we now return the note as evidence of payment in full.

We are sure that it gives you some real comfort because Credit Life Insurance was available for your protection.

Very truly yours,

PROMISSORY NOTE

For Value Received, 4331.16 Dated May 16th, 19 67
We promise to pay to the order of Associated Home Improvement Company (Dealer or Contractor) at the main office of INVESTORS SYNDICATE CREDIT CORPORATION, or as designated by the holder hereof, the sum of Forty Three Hundred & Thirty One & 16/100 Dollars payable in 60 equal successive monthly instalments of $ 72.19 each (except the final instalment, which shall be the balance then due on this note), the first instalment to be paid two months from date hereof and subsequent instalments on the same day of each month thereafter until paid in full.

Should any instalment become more than 10 days past due, a late charge of 5c for each $1.00 of the instalment shall be paid by the undersigned, if permitted by law, but shall not exceed $3.00 in respect of any one instalment. Upon default in the payment of any instalment, the entire unpaid balance may, at the option of the holder hereof, be declared immediately due and payable, with interest at the highest lawful Contract Rate after maturity until paid, and in the event this note is placed with an attorney for collection, the undersigned agrees, to the extent permitted by law, to pay all collection costs incurred, including court costs and reasonable attorney's fees.
